NOTE: On August 8, the Constitutional Court dismissed a case filed by independent presidential candidate Saviour Kasukuwere for a review of decisions by both the High Court and Supreme Court barring him from contesting the elections. Kasukuwere was disqualified on the grounds that he has not lived in or been to Zimbabwe for more than 18 months, as required by law.

The Constitutional Court ruled that Kasukuwere's case was a disguised appeal against the decision of the Supreme Court whose decisions are final on matters of law and fact - but can be technically reviewed there on fresh evidence. Kasukuwere is technically out of the race.

On August 8 as well, MDC candidate Douglas Mwonzora announced his withdrawal from the presidential race, saying he felt the election playing field was uneven. ZEC said Mwonzora would remain on the presidential ballot as he had missed the 21-day deadline of submitting his withdrawal notice. He said his MDC party was particularly irked by the disqualification of 87 candidates for National Assembly seats over a dispute on the late payment of election registration fees. A vote for Mwonzora in this case would be considered as a spoilt vote.

The High Court rejected an appeal by Linda Masarira (President of LEAD) to get her registration accepted by Zimbabwe Electoral Commission. She was not registered over a dispute on the payment method in local currency of a US$20,000 nomination fee.
